

Countdown to statutory Relationships & Sex Education

A NEW NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Every young person needs quality RSE.

Yet in 2016, only 1 in 10 pupils rated their RSE 'very good'.

Together we can change this.

Friday 30 November 2018

Coin Street Neighbourhood Centre, Waterloo, London

RSE in schools is changing.

We're counting down to the start of statutory RSE by guiding teachers through the new legislation, advising on curriculum design and helping you choose the best resources and teaching approaches to build an inclusive and up-to-date programme that is relevant to your pupils' real lives and supported by parents.

What should I expect?

- Keynotes from leaders in the field
- Briefing on the new legislation
- Young people's views about what they need
- Findings from a *new* survey
- Expert panel Q and A
- Multiple workshop options
- Resource and exhibition stands
- Networking throughout the day

For information on holding an exhibition stand, contact sexedforum@ncb.org.uk

Who should attend?

- Primary and secondary teachers leading or teaching PSHE / RSE
- Head teachers and deputies
- Pastoral staff
- Youth workers
- School nurses
- Local authority RSE leads

We've designed the workshops to provide practical help if you're getting started with RSE, with options for experienced RSE educators looking to extend knowledge, develop new skills and explore new approaches.

Workshops focused exclusively on either primary or secondary stage are clearly marked in the programme.
