

HOW READY FOR STATUTORY RSE ARE YOU? A QUIZ:

Following a Government announcement about the implementation of statutory RSE and draft updated guidance we've created a quiz to help you get up to speed with the facts to comply with the new legislation.

1. The Children and Social Work Act was passed in March 2017, making Relationships and Sex Education statutory. What else has the Government recently decided will be statutory alongside RSE?
a. Computing b. Character education c. Health Education
2. Which type of schools should start teaching the new RSE curriculum from September 2019?
a. secondary schools b. those that are ready c. primary schools
3. Which of the following types of school will have to provide Relationships and Sex Education?
a. free schools b. independent schools c. maintained schools d. faith schools
e. academies f. special schools g. all
4. Will parents have the right to excuse their child from Relationships Education?
a. Yes b. no c. it's up to the school to decide
5. Will parents have the right to withdraw their child from sex education?
a. Yes b. no c. it's up to the school to decide
6. How will schools know what to teach?
a. From the updated Government RSE guidance b. From a new National Curriculum programme of study for RSE c. From a new GCSE syllabus
7. Research shows that RSE is more effective if it a. works in partnership with parents b. is taught by trained educators
c. includes a comprehensive range of topics including sexual and reproductive health information d. all 8. Can faith schools choose to teach a faith perspective on aspects of RSE?
a. no b. Yes
9. How many education unions support the statement of commitment to RSE produced by the Sex Education Forum?
a. none b. three c. six
10. For how many years did the Sex Education Forum call for all children and young people to receive their entitlement to RSE?
a. 30 years b. 3 years c. 300 years

To help you get ready for statutory RSE we are running a special training course for PSHE leads and teachers of RSE. This one-day course can also be commissioned and delivered at a venue convenient to you. Make sure you are Statutory Ready.