

Statutory RSE – North East

The Sex Education Forum is delighted to bring our RSE conference VIRTUALLY to the North East, in association with Newcastle City Council.

RSE in schools is changing. RSE is officially statutory and schools are making their preparations to by fully delivering the new requirements by Summer term 2021.

At our virtual conference we will be guiding teachers through the new legislation, advising on curriculum design and helping you choose the best resources and teaching approaches to build an inclusive and up-to-date programme that is relevant to your pupils real lives and supported by parents.

Monday 5 October 2020

Having shaped policy and practice on RSE for 33 years, we will present our delegates with:

- Expert keynotes from DfE and Ofsted
- Hand-picked examples of good practice
- A choice of tailored workshops addressing consent, assessment, SEND inclusion, parental engagement and more
- The best resources and exhibitors

Who should attend?

- Primary and secondary teachers leading or those teaching PSHE/RSE
- Head teachers and deputies
- Pastoral staff
- Youth workers
- School nurses
- Local authority RSE leads

What should I expect?

Expert contributors include:

- Roary Pownall HMI, National Lead for PSHE, Ofsted
- Helena Wright, Department for Education
- Lucy Emmerson, Director of the Sex Education Forum
- Alice Hoyle, RSE teacher and author of Great RSE
- Lisa Davis, Director, Changing Relations
- Jac Bastian and Nimerta Virdee, Diversity Role Models
